SCHEDULE "A" for Bylaw No. 011-16

Where rates, fees or charges have not been established below for a particular service, Chestermere Utilities Incorporated (CUI) may establish charges for services provided. Charges established by CUI become effective and binding upon a Customer, or other person affected sixty (60) days after being delivered to the City of Chestermere's Chief Administrative Officer by CUI, unless the Chief Administrative Officer has an objection to the charges and has provided to CUI written communications regarding the objection in writing. Should the Chief Administrative Officer have an objection, the new charge, or amended charge, comes into effect upon written notice by the Chief Administrative Officer to CUI, stating the charge, or an amended charge may proceed. The Chief Administrative Officer also has a duty to inform Council of his or her objections, in writing.

Council as the regulator of the utility, may at any time review charges, or proposed charges and accept them, alter them, or refuse them.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, CUI may establish charges for the following:

- (a) service connection fees and/or developer contributions;
- (b) inspection fees;
- (c) repair or replacement of damaged CUI Facilities where Facilities are under the Customer's care or have been operated or interfered with by the Customer;
- (d) application for a new Account or change of Account;
- (e) disconnection of service for non-payment;
- (f) reconnection fees;
- (g) collection charges;
- (h) missed appointment(s) or no access;
- (i) after hour service callout;
- (j) late payment penalties;
- (k) security deposits;
- (l) NSF payment;
- (II) Meter Accuracy Tests;
- (III) Meter Charges;
